School Steps Up Science Program

Canyon's School Board added a West Texas State College physics professor to the high school science program, employed a counselor for the high school and set the date for the public hearing on the proposed budget at its meeting recently.

William Wilson, associate professor of physics at West Texas State College, was employed to teach one class in physics at the high school as a cooperative endeavor between the Canyon schools and the college. Wilson's classwork will be a demonstration program for high schools in the entire Panhandle area. In addition to his teaching, Wilson will serve as consultant for the science teachers in the Canyon public schools.

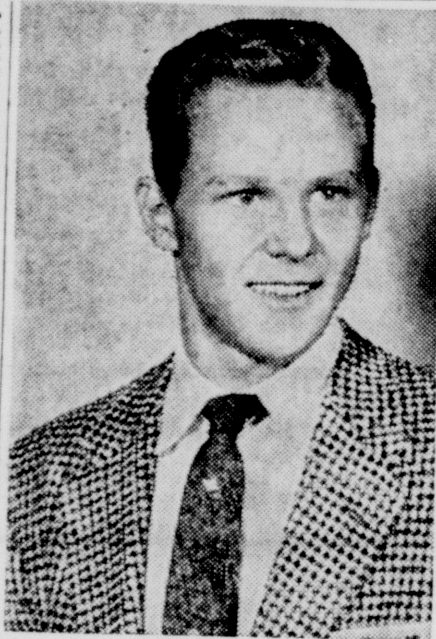

Lawrence Roberts was employed as counselor for Canyon High School. Roberts is experienced in counseling work and is certified by the Texas Education Agency as a public school counselor. Roberts lives in Canyon and has been working in the Amarillo school system.

The public hearing on the proposed budget for 1960-61 was set for August 16 at 8 p.m. in the superintendent's office.

DON KUEHLER

Triplett Chosen Top Area Farmer

Joe Triplett, 16-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Triplett, is one of 10 youths in Texas honored as a Star Farmer by the Texas Association of Future Farmers of America.

Triplett, a senior at Canyon High School, was chosen as the Star Farmer for Area I, which includes all of the Panhandle to 10 miles south of Lubbock.

He was honored at last week's state FFA convention in Houston. Two other Canyon youths received Lone Star Farmer degrees at the convention. Receiving the awards were Don Kuehler, 19-year-old Canyon senior, and George Loudder, 18-year-old 1960 graduate of Canyon High School.

Kuehler is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Kuehler and Loudder is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Loudder.

A member of the FFA in Canyon for three years, Triplett was named Star Farmer after demonstrating leadership ability and proving he could be a success at farming, according to Edward Dwyer, Canyon High School vocational agriculture teacher and FFA sponsor.

Won Convention Trip
As the area Star Farmer, Triplett won the Santa Fe Award, an all-expense paid trip to the national convention in Kansas City October 11, and an all-expense paid trip to the state fair in Dallas.

With one year of high school FFA work left, he plans to run for area and state offices next year. During the three years he has been in FFA, Triplett has been named a district and area Lone Star Farmer. He won first place in the district in public speaking and second place in area competition in public speaking in competition.

Bill York Named City Manager; To Assume Duties on August 1

Stevens Resigns For Lubbock Job

A 26-year-old Texas Tech graduate has been hired by the Canyon City Commission as the new city manager.

He is Billy George York, who is presently serving as an administrative assistant to the city manager in Lubbock.

York will replace Herschell Stevens, who resigned last week to enter business in Lubbock. Stevens had been city manager of Canyon since last November when he was elevated from the city secretary's post.

Stevens' resignation is effective July 31, and York will assume duties August 1, according to Mayor John P. Taylor.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Clay York of Shamrock, York has been employed by the City of Lubbock in a city manager training program for about a year.

He received his master's degree in government from Texas Tech in 1959. He worked part-time for the City of Lubbock while doing graduate work.

Worked in All Phases

York received his B.A. degree from Texas Tech in government in 1956, finishing with a 1.98 grade average.

In the training program with the City of Lubbock, York has worked with the Finance Division, Planning and Zoning Division, Public Works Division, urban renewal, police and fire departments, and the city manager's office.

A 1952 graduate of Shamrock High School, York served 21 months on active duty with the U. S. Army as an enlisted man in artillery intelligence and liaison.

Worked at Lubbock

In his training with the City of Lubbock, York said he has "had the opportunity to view citizen boards at work, see the preparation of the annual budget, view a bond sale, attend department head meetings, and other operations and events surrounding the operation of a city government."

"In the city manager's office, I have had the responsibility of receiving claims against the city, answering correspondence and questionnaires, and completing special projects for the city manager. In this capacity, I have had the opportunity to view the city manager and his staff at work."

York is a member of the Highland Baptist Church in Lubbock, where he is serving as assistant superintendent and Sunday school teacher.

Plans Move Soon

He is a junior member of the International City Managers Association and belongs to the West Texas District of the Texas City Managers Association.

He is married and has one son, Jack Kelly, 2.

He plans to move to Canyon as soon as he locates a house for his family.

Lunch, Reports To End Confab

A luncheon meeting and reports from a research committee Thursday will close the final day's sessions of the eighth annual Reading Conference, which opened Tuesday at West Texas State College.

The luncheon will be held in the west side of the cafeteria, and speaking will be Dr. G. Robert Carlsen, professor of English at the State University of Iowa. Dr. Carlsen will talk on "A Little Bit Accomplishes Much."

Opening the final general session at 8:45 a.m. Thursday, invocation will be given by the Rev. C. Newton Starnes, pastor of the First Methodist Church. "Individualized Reading" will be the address by Dr. Ralph C. Staiger, director of the reading clinic at Mississippi Southern College. Dr. Carlsen, assisted by a panel, will discuss "What Am I Taking Home."

Group meetings at 11 a.m. will feature a demonstration of reading diagnosis by Dr. Staiger for elementary grade teachers.

Reports at 2:45 p.m. will feature a talk on "Progress in Science Teaching" by Burl J. Brim of Canyon, who teaches in Amarillo, and an address of "Social Studies: An Urgent Need for Review" by Edward L. McMillan of Wayland College. ## County Farmers Vote for Quotas

Randall County wheat growers, along with other wheat growers in the nation, overwhelmingly approved a wheat marketing quota program for the 1961 crop in last Thursday's referendum.

The vote in Randall County was 242 in favor of quotas to 39 against quotas. Only 281 of the county's 646 eligible voters balloted in the election.

Approval of the program means that the 1961 crop price support will be available at not less than 75 percent of parity if wheat growers comply with their allotments.

The vote by communities was Canyon 67 for, 17 against; Sunnyhill-Fairview, 29 to 1; Jowell, 31 to 2; Umbarger, 28 to 5; Highland, 19 to 10; Trigg-Zita, 34 to 4, and Stone, 34 to 0.

Doyle Thomas, office manager for the Randall County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office, said Thursday's referendum was approved by 87 percent of the nation's wheat growers, the largest plurality ever voted in the referendum.

A two-thirds majority of the votes cast was necessary for the program to remain in effect.

Ice Cream Supper Slated Tomorrow

Senior citizens will be honored tomorrow night at an ice cream supper at the home of Mrs. Tommie Pierce, 1602 Sixth Avenue.

Home made ice cream and cake will be served to citizens 60 years old or older in Mrs. Pierce's backyard.

Group Begins Estimating Cost Of South Loop Right of Way

Randall County Commissioners' Court Monday appointed a group of men to make an estimate of how much the right of way for a south loop around Amarillo will cost.

The group, made up of representatives from the Texas Highway Department, the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce, the Commissioners' Court, and several area landowners, were to go over the proposed route of the loop Tuesday morning and make their estimate. Their decisions are to be presented to the commissioners' court at its next meeting Monday.

Appointment of the group came after a morning-long discussion in the crowded courtroom. The nearly 30 persons at the session included representatives of the groups mentioned, as well as those of prospective bond-buying companies and the Canyon Chamber of Commerce.

'What's Going On'

Roland Black, executive secretary of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce, told the court that he had come to the meeting to find out "what is going on" with respect to the loop project and the proposed bond election.

He stated that all he knew was what he read in the paper since he had not been invited to any of the meetings at which the matter was discussed. He added that he wanted to see how much this project would raise the taxes of Canyon residents since he assumed that they would be allowed to vote on the bond issue.

Earl Marrs, Randall County landowner, voiced further disapproval of the handling of the matter by saying that he thought that this was "strictly a Randall County project" and that meetings held concerning it should be in Canyon, with the participation of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce, rather than in Amarillo.

Marrs said that the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce met without inviting the Canyon chamber or the Randall County commissioners.

Petitions Ready
Sherwood Blasdel, chairman of the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce sub-committee in charge of the south loop, said that the Amarillo group had met to see what cooperation they could give to Randall County on the project and had invited C. Y. Johnson, precinct 4 commissioner, and County Judge Wayland C. Angel.

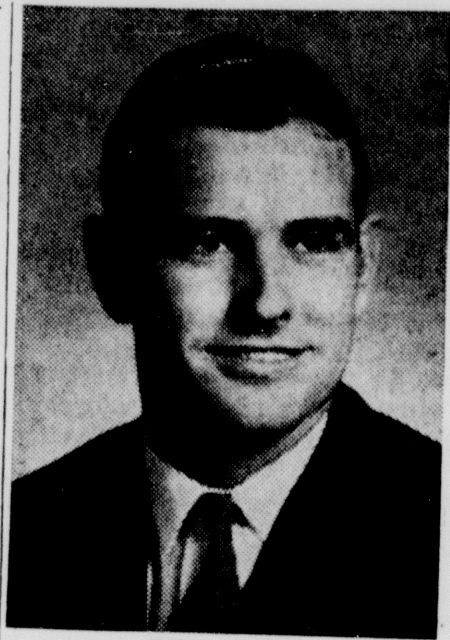

Blasdel had started the discussion by telling the group that he had petitions approved by attorneys and ready for circulation and that all he needed was an estimate of what the right of way would cost.

Chili Smith, district engineer for the highway department, estimated that 500 acres of land would need to be bought for the right of way.

20 Miles Long

Other discussion was on how much of the proposed loop should be included in the bond election.

Hereford All-Stars Beat Canyon, 7-3

Canyon's Little League All-Stars lost to the defending champions, the Hereford All-Stars, 7-3, in their game Friday night in Plainview.

Hereford started early, with Gene Duvall scoring in the first and Jim Allison in the second. Five runs in the third, three brought in by Danny Baize's homer, put Hereford safely in the lead.

With two out in the sixth inning and Hereford ahead, 7-0, the Canyon team rallied almost enough to win the game. Dennis Haley started it by hitting a homer over the fence. Steve Hines then got on base by an error, and David Rossi brought him in with a homer.

Cliff Sherrod kept Canyon hopes alive by doubling, but Tom Lair's hit was caught, ending the game.

Terry Hulsey, Hereford's left-handed pitcher, gave up five hits, walked two, and struck out six.

Canyon's starting pitcher, Lair, was replaced in the fourth by Bruce Winn. Together they gave up 11 hits, walked one, and struck out eight.

That $1 Billion Surplus

The $1.1 billion surplus with which the federal government closed its books on the fiscal year ended June 30 is no less welcome because it was largely accidental. It is the unexpected boom which is the most gratifying. And the rarity of such things as a federal surplus—there have now been three during the Eisenhower administration and five in the last 30 years—heightens the satisfaction in them.

Since January it has been nip and tuck as to whether the government would wind up at mid-year with a surplus or a deficit. Fortuitous circumstance, even more than the "fiscal responsibility" the administration claims, made it a surplus and a surprisingly large one. Revenues actually fell $232 million below expectations. But spending also dropped. Such things as the farm program, foreign loans and military aid and veterans assistance did not cost quite as much as had been forecast, and that is where the "accident" came in. For had these things required it, the money would have been spent. At least partly accidental was the fact that interest costs on the federal debt also were lower than had been estimated, due to the recent decline in interest rates.

As of June 30, the public debt stood at $286 billion, the highest level at any fiscal year-end in history. The $1.1 billion surplus will whittle away a little of this huge debt, but not enough to alter more than slightly the necessity of spending 11½ percent of the total annual federal outlay just to pay the interest on it. Debt interest still will remain the costliest item in the federal budget aside from national defense.

And it is not to be forgotten that this year's surplus is small by comparison with the $12.4 billion deficit that preceded it. It will take many more surpluses of the same size just to offset the effect of the deficit accumulated in a single year.

Whether even such modest-by-comparison surpluses will be realized in future years depends upon a lot of things. Partly it depends upon what it is considered necessary to spend for national security in view of the troubled condition of world affairs. And largely it depends upon exercise, by whatever party is in power, of the "fiscal responsibility" of which the administration boasts and which at times it has shown.

As regards the current fiscal year's budget, it depends in large degree upon the acuteness of the spending urge that grips Congress when it returns to session in this political year. Using the federal treasury as a source of funds to buy votes could blow sky high all hopes of making government financial ends meet in the fiscal year that ends next June 30.

The precarious outcome for the last fiscal year carries a warning for framers of the recently adopted Democratic platform. This platform calls for almost unlimited spending, with the expectation that stimulated economic growth will increase tax income to the point of paying the costs. Well, the government wasn't rescued from deficit spending by such an income rise last year, even though the economy was growing. It might happen in the future, but dependence upon yet unrealized income is a highly risky method of financing. It is better to play it safe and spend money only after it is certain to be in hand, and not on the basis of wishful anticipation.

Farm, Ranch Safety

Most of us balk when we see or hear any kind of list of do's and don'ts regarding our daily lives. We consider our beliefs about living our personal property, and we resent outsiders telling us how to live. "It's none of their business!" we complain.

Yet consider for a moment the number of strangers whose advice we listen to each day: bankers, doctors, machinery experts, newspaper columnists, lawyers, radio announcers—the list could go on forever. We're bombarded by advice all day long from a variety of experts.

According to President Eisenhower, who proclaimed July 24-30 as National Farm Safety Week, accidents, in addition to draining our nation's financial resources, "bring death, disability, suffering and hardship to thousands of farm people annually."

Safety habits, therefore, are vitally needed if there are to be fewer deaths and injuries, less expense, grief and suffering on the farm and a prosperous national economy.

The Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council, which is pushing a farm safety education campaign in Texas, tells us that farm life can be enjoyed by practicing safety each day. The council asks farmers and ranchers to check their home electric and heating systems, to check and repair equipment, to keep children away from machinery and livestock.

It warns against falls, resulting from hurry and unsafe ladders. The farmer or rancher is cautioned to make sure all farm equipment is operating safely and to stop machines before unclogging, oiling or adjusting them.

This is good advice, not only during Farm Safety Week, but the other 51 weeks of the year, too.

I GIVE YOU TEXAS

Drowning of Hog in Greenway
Played Role in Development

By BOYCE HOUSE

There is, or was, quite a few years ago, a railroad station bearing the sign, "Greenway, Ark."—in sight of the highway as you drive by. What is mention-worthy about that? Well, the town is a mile and a half away and the building is in a farmer's field.

No, it was not carried there by a flood or a tornado. How then did it get there? That is the tragic story of a town.

I was born in Piggott, which is the county seat of Clay County. Back in 1919, when I returned to my birth place to edit the Banner, if an out-of-towner referred to Piggott as Hoggott, a riled native would likely knock his hat off.

Hog Plays Role

And yet a hog played a decisive part in the history of Piggott, according to tradition, which goes like this:

Greenway and Piggott were about the same size. They were three miles apart. Both were on the Cotton Belt railroad. They were rivals for the honor of being selected as county seat. Paved streets were unknown and the sidewalks were made of boards, what sidewalks there were, in either town.

What Our Neighbors Say . . .

Scissor Snippings

Paul Crume in the Dallas Morning News: Leroy Gilbert, an old Irving boy who recently moved to Denver, Colo., started out recently to go to the Liston-Folley fight up there, and—

Discovered that all general admission seats were sold and that he had only $7.80 of the $8.25 needed for a reserved seat.

Persuaded the ticket clerk to accept his new Colorado driver's license as identification for a check and then found that neither of them had a blank check. Went to the main ticket office and stood in two lines without turning up a blank check. Asked two men if he might borrow one and got dirty looks.

Went to several bars, the only business places open, and asked for a blank check. The bartenders were all so busy expressing horror at the idea of taking a check for drinks that he never got to explain. Shook down his own car on the theory that he and the kids were always losing small change in it. He needed only 45 cents but found only a nickel.

Drove to a filling station to which he had a credit card and asked the man if, as a personal favor, he would trust him for $1 on the strength of the car. The man was scandalized at the idea of using the card for anything except oil and gas.

Agreed with the filling station man that the request was irregular.

Went home. "Sometimes," he wrote later, "I wish I was back in Texas."

Ben Ezell in the Canadian Record: Best assessment of the situation currently making the rounds: "It's not so much a question of whether or not Kennedy is big enough for the White House as whether the White House is big enough for the Kennedys."

If Jack is elected President, he'll have no trouble finding a niche for one member of the family. Brother-in-law Peter Lawford will be a natural for an appointment as head of the FBI. TV's "Thin Man" would bring loads of experience to the job.

Longer Season For Doves Seen

AUSTIN — Hunters seem well pleased at the bonus dove shooting they will get during the 1960 season, according to the executive secretary of the Game and Fish Commission.

The North Zone season this year will start at 12 noon, September 1, and close at sunset October 30. The South Zone will open October 7 and close December 5, except in the counties where white-winged dove shooting will be permitted three days earlier.

The white-winged dove season will be for three days, September 9, 10, and 11. This season will be from 2 p.m. until sunset.

There also will be an increase in bag limit on mourning doves for the upcoming season. The shooter will be permitted to take 15 per day and have 30 in possession.

Whitewing shooters, who may also kill mourning doves at the same time, will be permitted to have 10 whitewings and 5 mourners for the first day of hunting. They may have 20 mourning doves and 10 whitewings in possession after the second day.

Baptists Building Big Camp in County

By BOB TAYLOR

A million dollar Baptist camp is being built six and a half miles northwest of Canyon by the Amarillo Baptist Association.

The project is only beginning, however, and is therefore only partially completed. The land—319 acres just southeast of Amarillo City Lake off of FM1062—has been bought, two buildings have been erected, and camp sessions for Baptist young people have been started.

Plans for development of the camp, to be known as the Amarillo Baptist Association Assembly Grounds, are extensive, according to Rev. Aaron Mann, pastor of Canyon's Calvary Baptist Church and a member of the association's development committee.

Goal of 3,000 Campers

"We are going to develop adequate and complete assembly grounds here, where we will be able to hold nine of 10 camps through the summer," Rev. Mann said. "Our goal is to be able to have 3,000 campers here at one time, but this may not be possible for about 10 years."

Buildings at the camp will include the administration building and the bath house—both of which have been completed and are in use—dormitories for the campers, an auditorium, a caretaker's home, a checkpoint building near the entrance, and small shelters for instruction and study.

Also planned for the camp are two swimming pools.

Scale Model Constructed

A landscape architect hired by the association has laid out the entire camp and has built a scale model showing the locations of the proposed buildings. Roads have been surveyed and graded, wires for telephones and electricity have been installed, and complete water, sewer, and natural gas systems are to be built soon.

The 33 churches in the Amarillo Baptist Association, including the two Baptist churches in Canyon, will build cabins in the assembly ground area. Other cabins may be built since 123 sites have been set aside for this purpose.

Also available for participating churches is a large picnicking and camping area, already equipped with floodlights, electric outlets, and a few grills and picnic tables.

Up to Churches

Although the camp is being built to serve the Amarillo Association, two other associations in the Panhandle have voted to participate in the project. Rev. Mann pointed out, however, that it will be up to each individual church to decide whether or not it wants to use the assembly grounds.

There is a possibility of 60 churches participating so far, according to Rev. Mann. Churches which do decide to help with the project will give one percent of their budgets for the development of the assembly grounds.

The camp's first session, for girls 13 to 16, started last Monday and ended at noon Wednesday. Registration was 94. Girls from 9 to 12 attended the second session, which started Wednesday afternoon and ended at noon Friday. Registration for this group was 256. The beginning of these sessions at the assembly grounds brought Baptist camping 100 miles closer to the area. Baptist young people have been going to the Plains Baptist Encampment between Floydada and Ralls.

Allford Leads Music

Mrs. T. B. McCandless, president of the Amarillo Baptist Association's Women's Mission Union, was camp director. Argus Burnett, superintendent of missions for the association, was business manager, and Miss Helen Nixon from Argentina was camp missionary.

Canyon was represented on the camp staff by Bob Allford, music director at Canyon's First Baptist Church, who was in charge of music, and Mrs. Aaron Mann, who was camp nurse. Camp pastors were Rev. Howard Lyons from Tascosa Baptist in Amarillo for the first session and Rev. S. B. Nichols from Dumas for the second session.

Included in the camp program were mission study, work on forward steps in the girls' auxiliary, messages by the camp missionary and camp pastor, recreation, handwork, and swimming in a pool on a nearby ranch. The girls stayed in tents pitched in the picnic area.

Sessions for boys began Monday, with 9 to 12-year-olds going from Monday through Wednesday noon and 13 to 16-year-olds scheduled for Wednesday noon through Friday noon.

Director for the boys' sessions is Henry Webb, a West Texas State College graduate who is now director of the Baptist Student Union at Amarillo College.

Get up with the lark, but don't keep the lark awake all night.

Brim Schedules Art Exhibition

An exhibition of paintings and drawings by Burl J. Brim, Amarillo teacher, will go on display in the lounge of the Fine Arts Building at West Texas State College Monday night.

A tea for the artist will be held at 7:30 p.m., when the exhibit opens, and the paintings will be up "for the taking," according to Brim.

"We are doing something new with this exhibit," said Dr. Emilio Caballero, head of the WT art department. "Burl feels that everyone should enjoy art, and he is allowing people to select paintings for themselves Monday. If anyone wants to contribute something for the paintings, he can, but if he wants one of his paintings for nothing, that is fine."

Brim's works are primarily watercolors and are landscapes or of buildings.

A teacher last year at Paramount Terrace school in Amarillo, Brim will go to Denver in September to begin work toward his doctorate at the University of Denver, where he holds a fellowship. He will be a candidate for his master of education degree in August at WT, where he earned his B.S. in 1957. He taught a year in Canyon before going to Amarillo.

Brim is married and has four children.

Salk Shots Dealing Death Blow To Polio in State, Figures Show

At the end of June there were only 19 cases of paralytic polio in Texas compared to 92 cases during the same period last year, State Health Department figures show. Only two cases were registered in the week ending July 2. The five year median for the corresponding week has been 19 cases of paralytic polio.

Nonparalytic polio also shows a significant drop with a total of 14 cases compared to 39 cases last year at this time.

Despite the encouraging figures, polio continues to strike hard and too often—most often at children below four years of age.

The series of three Salk anti-polio shots has proven overwhelmingly successful. Parents are urged to have their children of preschool age polio protected.

A fourth "booster" shot is recommended for added protection.

During 1959 there were six documented deaths attributed to sports in Texas. Two of the deaths occurred from boxing injuries—the remaining four were caused from football, according to State Health Department figures.

Both boxing fatalities were in organized boxing. The two deaths were to persons 21 and 19 years of age.

In football, two deaths occurred among high school players in scrimmage contests. One death occurred to a 13-year-old in junior high school during football practice.

The fourth fatality was from injuries to a youth of 11, while playing football at home with friends.

Scholastic regulations demand stringent physical examinations before students are allowed to participate in organized athletics within Texas schools. Fatalities are usually the result of freak accidents or an unknown physical condition.

Organized athletics deaths are far below figures from other accidental causes—such as drowning. Each year thousands of Texas students engage in competitive athletics, indicating a small percentage of deaths resulting from athletic activity.

Nedra Fanning, Tommie Davis Vows Read July 16 in Double Ring Rites

Dr. Strauss Atkinson, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiated at the wedding ceremony uniting Nedra Lynn Fanning and Thomas Edwin Davis.

The double ring rites were read at 7 p.m. July 16 in the First Baptist Church.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Lon Fanning, 2622 Third Avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Davis, 407 9th Street.

Nuptial Music Played

Mrs. Dick Dawdy of Canyon, organist, provided a nuptial prelude and traditional music. Mrs. Farrell Devenport, vocal soloist, sang "O, Promise Me" and "Whither Thou Goest."

Vows were exchanged before a white draped altar with a background of greenery, flanked by tall baskets of yellow and white gladioli and branched candelabra. Steps leading to the altar were covered with white aisle cloth. On either side were candelabra with cathedral tapers tied with white satin bows and greenery, as were the pews for the family and house party.

Bob Fielden of Amarillo and Gary Humphries of Canyon lighted the candles.

Attendants Wear Yellow

Miss Virginia Leake was bridesmaid and Miss Joyce Ricketts was maid of honor. They wore identical dresses of pale yellow nylon dotted swiss over taffeta, styled with full skirts, scoop necklines, puffed sleeves, and butterfly bows rillo, brother of the bridegroom, was groomsmen. Ushers were Bob Fielden, Gary Humphries, and Jim Fanning, brother of the bride.

Carries White Orchid

The bride's father escorted her to the altar for her marriage.

She wore a floor length gown of bridal satin, fashioned with a full skirt that accented a draped front. The fitted bodice was embroidered with seed pearls and topped by a lace bolera with a Queen Ann collar and long tapering sleeves.

Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white Frenched carnations nestled in tufts of net and centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Fanning, mother of the bride, wore a dress of mint green silk with bone accessories. Mrs. Davis, mother of the bridegroom, wore a dress of beige linen with mint green accessories. Each wore a glabella corsage.

Reception in Student Center

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Baptist Student Center on the West Texas State College campus.

The bride's table was laid with white linen cloth with lace inserts and decorated with the tiered cake and white tapers in crystal holders. Presiding at the table were Mrs. Iverson Leake and Mrs. Strauss Atkinson.

Piano selections were provided by Miss Dorothy Higdon and Jim Fanning. Miss Judy Parsons presided at the guest book.

Wedding Trip

The bride traveled in a suit of white silk linen with accessories of patent. An orchid completed her ensemble.

The couple is at home at 2407 Hughes in Amarillo.

The bride was graduated from Canyon High School and attended West Texas State College. She will continue her studies in the fall.

The bridegroom, also a Canyon High School graduate, is employed in the traffic department of Santa Fe Railroad. He has also attended WT.

The bridegroom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner.

A bridal shower was held July 8 in the Baptist Student Center.

Fishermen Ignore License Warning

AUSTIN—Despite warnings, fishermen still persist in going out without licenses.

The June report of the director of law enforcement of the Game and Fish Commission showed 207 sports fishermen paid fines, and 24 in the commercial fishing industry went into court.

Game wardens also made it hard on "telephoners." They arrested 12 and charged them with illegal use of electrical devices on catching fish.

Game wardens during June made 319 arrests. The courts collected $6,621 in fines and costs.

New hunting and fishing licenses for the 1960-61 season will be mailed out of Austin August 19 to license deputies throughout the state. They will go on sale shortly thereafter.

Maddux Finishes Officer Training

Second Lt. Joe T. Maddux, son of Mr. and Mrs. Monroe T. Maddux, Route 1, Canyon, recently completed the 10-week officer basic course at the Army Signal School, Fort Monmouth, N. J.

Lieutenant Maddux, a newly-commissioned Signal Corps officer, was trained in small unit tactics, staff and command procedures, communication methods, and military leadership.

The 24-year-old officer is a 1954 graduate of Canyon High School and a 1958 graduate of Texas A&M College.

Folks in the Southwest tend to take ancestral history lightly. Though the early West was not as roo-tin'-tootin' as TV shows would have us think, still most frontiersmen believed a man is what he is and should be judged accordingly.

We once traced our own frontier family back to the Atlantic shores. It started on one side with the immigration of Scots to the Carolinas, and on the other to a New Jersey flour mill during the Revolution. We did this when our son was four. Maybe we had a premonition he would marry a New Englander 22 years later. But more likely it was delight with the tales we had heard from childhood.

One particularly caught our fancy: Mother's great-great Uncle Reuben weighed "better than 300 pounds," and when the "home-made soldiers came to arrest him as a rebel, he just sat down." They couldn't budge him, so they went away.

Within the last few years, we hear, American tourists visiting England have had quite a surge of interest in trying to trace their family trees. Apparently, they've become curious about what part of England, Scotland, or Ireland their forebears came from, and whether they were scoundrels or gentlemen. The gentility they can boast about back home; the scoundrels give color to the tale, as much as to say, "You can see I'm not taking all this seriously."

While we have no heraldry to boast of, and no record from across the seas, we do have a couple of jerry-built family trees put away somewhere. And hanging like an overripe peach from one of the highest branches is Great Grandpa Alexander's Uncle Reuben, who just sat down till the Yankees went away.

Some people never get a move on until they are hopelessly stuck.

Washington Report

Paying the Price

By Representative Walter Rogers
18th Congressional District

The national figures for the 1960 census will tell a story that most of us have known for some time. In what may well be the greatest and most significant American migration in recent history, millions of people are forsaking the farm and crossroads to stream toward the great urban centers of our nation.

And at least by the time children of these restless, mobile Americans reach high school, a map of the United States will be covered with huge welt-like markings to denote the most complex and awesome cities the world has ever known. Many of these city dwellers will work and play in "towns" which range across hundreds of miles without interruption.

The trend has been obvious in many ways. The most casual glance at wedding announcements in Panhandle newspapers will reveal that many young couples choose to abandon their home towns in favor of larger cities.

Carry Hopes

An hour in the bus and railroad stations of a large metropolis will uncover a portion of the millions who set out for the big city each year with their high hopes—and often their every possession—carried with them. Just a short ride along the outskirts of even a moderately large community will uncover row upon row of mass produced, FHA financed homes—the hallmark of sprawling suburbia.

These are the hard facts of an important feature in American life since World War II. In some ways, the massive "urge to move" is perhaps inspiring insofar as it demonstrates that we have not lost the pioneering spirit which made America great. Our people still have the courage to venture into new environments and test new ways. Many of them, I am sure, are hopeful of benefiting their countrymen as well as themselves. We are not, as our enemies would have us believe, such an entirely contented and declining nation at all.

Propaganda's Part

Nevertheless, the uncomfortable feeling remains that much of this surging movement toward our urban complexes is inspired grandiose propaganda. To say that our smaller communities offer no opportunities is, in most cases, sheer fiction.

To complain that the more rural areas of our country are "lull" displays an unpleasant modern neurosis, an unhealthy grasping for "something to do" and a strange inability to find it. And to paint universally rosy pictures of life in the metropolis is particularly deceptive, for the individual tragedies that can sometimes occur are as old as O. Henry's writings.

Old men whittling in front of the country store are as much a part of America as the high pressure brokers on Wall Street. We should be as proud of the kindly old general practitioner as we are of the most eminent heart specialist. And the man who rides a tall, bumpy tractor has fully as much stake in the American experiment as does the man who rides from directors meeting to directors meeting in a low, smooth limousine.

Committed An Error

We have, I think, committed a fundamental error in emphasizing a certain brand of success all out of proportion to its true worth. We have too often dwelt upon the slick, the super-sophisticated, the "gee-whiz" type of endeavor. We have sometimes been willing to exchange quick, easy fame and success for slow, difficult, but profound satisfaction. This attitude has not been without effect.

We are now beginning to pay the price, and the amazing rush of so many of our people to urban areas is perhaps not the only toll. The source of many of our worries, such as conformity or trend toward bureaucracy, can also be traced to a shift in values.

We would do well to remember that American strength lies to a great extent in its diversity and depth. The 1960 census, in revealing a partial loss of this vibrant quality, might well remind us of our duty to keep faith with all facets of our life.

HD Tea Fetes Revue Winners

Winners in the Randall County 4-H Dress Revue were feted at a tea, held Monday before a regular session of the county Home Demonstration Council.

Gift certificates and ribbons for winners in the dress revue, bake show, and District I elimination contests were presented.

The dress revue was held Thursday in the Farm Bureau building.

Taking first place in the senior division was Virginia Friemel, who won last year's revue and went through the District I contest to the state finals. She will compete in this year's District I contest tomorrow in the Flame Room in the Pioneer Natural Gas Building in Amarillo. Judging will begin at 9 a.m.

Senior Division

Virginia modeled a brown and black transitional cotton dress, styled as a modified shirt waist with elbow length sleeves and softness in the skirt. She chose brown suede accessories and a brown cotton and velveteen hat.

Ann Fisher, who made a shirt waist of navy blue broadcloth, captured second place in the senior division. Her accessories were red and black, with white shorty gloves.

Sue Frank took third place on her plaid school dress in a cotton and silk blend.

Junior Competition

In the junior division, Cindy Gruner was first. She modeled a brown and black plaid gingham school dress.

Lucy Tueck won second with a red and white checked gingham school dress, trimmed in red rickrack. Kay Fisher was third, with a red and black cotton print, trimmed in black rickrack.

The senior division is for girls over 14, and the junior division is for girls under 14.

Mrs. R. A. Hodges was chairman of the tea committee, and was assisted by Mrs. Lewis Tueck and Mrs. Alvin Friemel. Punch, mints, and 4-H cookies were served.

Council Selects Hodges Chairman

Officers were elected by the Randall County Home Demonstration Council Monday.

Mrs. R. A. Hodges, who served as county Texas Home Demonstration Association chairman this year, will head the council in 1961.

Mrs. John Plank was named vice chairman, and Mrs. D. L. Allison will be secretary-treasurer.

Other officers will be appointed. In other action, the council selected Mrs. Earl Reynolds as county THDA chairman.

Mrs. Lewis Tueck, 4-H leader, was authorized to attend the state THDA convention in Brownsville in September, bringing the total of women expected to represent Randall County to five. Other delegates are Mrs. Earl Burtz, Mrs. Reynolds, and Mrs. R. O. McKay. Mrs. Hodges is chairman of the state recreation committee.

Shipman, Selva Injured As Car Hits Mobile Home

Gene Shipman and Sherrel Ray Selva of Wayside were both seriously injured Saturday morning at about 1:20 near Conway when their car rammed into the back of a trailer house and the cars and trailer house burned.

The people in the front car were not seriously injured, and they pulled Shipman and Selva to safety as both boys were knocked unconscious.

Shipman received a broken nose and lacerations on his face. He was in surgery five and one-half hours, and is doing as well as can be expected. Selva received internal injuries.

Both are in serious but not critical condition in Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo.

Group Begins —

The entire south loop would be nearly 20 miles long, but only two-thirds of this, from the Amarillo Canyon Expressway to Washington Street along Hollywood Road, has been authorized by the highway department.

Several members of the group thought that the inclusion of the western portion would enhance the chances of passing the bond election.

Marrs said that either the two sections should be voted on separately or the western part should be left out of the election until the highway department is ready to construct it.

Large Estimate Asked

Blasdel suggested that the right of way estimate be large enough to include the entire loop and that newspapers be requested to explain to the public that only those bonds needed would be issued. If the southeast part were built and some funds were left over, they could be used on the southwest quadrant, but none would be issued until the right of way is actually bought, Blasdel explained.

The only real action taken by the commissioners on the matter was the appointing of the group to make the right of way appraisal.

Later in the afternoon the commissioners talked with representatives of several bond companies but put off a decision until they had a chance to meet with all interested companies.

Mrs. C. E. Clark Traces 20 Year Programs Span

Agriculture programs have varied considerably in the past 20 years. That is the opinion of Mrs. C. E. Clark, chief clerk for the Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation Service.

"Programs have varied according to the needs. In case of crisis, such as when we have a drought, we have a special program," Mrs. Clark, who recently received an award for 20 years of service, said.

When Mrs. Clark, who lives at 1712 Second Avenue, began working for W. H. Upchurch July 1, 1939, the program was basically that of the Agricultural Adjustment Act, passed as a part of Franklin D. Roosevelt's "New Deal."

A system of allotments, marketing programs, and parity was in use.

War-time Program

In the fall of 1943, quotas were taken off farm crops, and production goals were set to encourage farmers to raise foodstuffs for the war effort.

Another part of the defense effort that came through her office was rationing farm supplies — fence wire, gasoline, tractor tires, and other items.

"These were rationed on a basis of a definite need from a defense standpoint. Of course, the county committee had to give its approval," she said.

Her office also worked with Selective Service on whether to keep a boy on his farm.

Following the war, loans and marketing programs were restored in 1948-49, and acreage allotments came back into use in 1950. The Soil Bank was established in 1956.

Facilities Enlarged

Along with the expansion of the agriculture program, there has been an expansion of facilities.

When Mrs. Clark began work, the AAA office shared an office with the county agent on the first floor of the courthouse. About five years ago, when the Randall County commissioners court needed space, the ASC office was moved to 1408 Fourth Avenue.

As chief clerk, Mrs. Clark handles the wool, loan, and price support programs, as well as the administrative part of the office. She is acting manager when Doyle Thomas, office manager, is out of town.

"When you first start to work, you feel like you can run any job, and when you work as long as I have, you find out you don't know anything," Mrs. Clark summarizes her 20 years of service.

But Thomas disagrees with her modest summary.

"She knows more details than anyone in this office, including me. We depend on her highly," Thomas says. "We have a hard time keeping her from working on Saturday and after-hours on her own time."

Jaycee-Ettes Hold Dinner in Amarillo

The Canyon Jaycee-Ettes held a dinner in the Farrell Manor Restaurant in Amarillo recently.

Following the dinner, they returned to the Canyon home of Mrs. Wayne Wirt for a short business meeting.

MRS. DONALD PARIS

Nuptial Vows Solemnized July 17 For Shirley Miller, Donald Paris

Before an altar decorated with four seven-branched candelabra and sprays of white gladioli, Miss Shirley Miller of Sunray became the bride of Donald Paris of Canyon in a double ring ceremony July 17 at 3 p.m. in the Joseph A. Hill chapel.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Miller, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. J. E. Hill of Tahoka.

Dr. Strauss Atkinson, pastor of the First Baptist Church, read the marriage vows.

Traditional Music Used

Mrs. Fanita Humphries, organist played a prelude of nuptial music and the traditional music, and accompanied Bill Knighton, soloist, as he sang "Because."

Miss Vanda Latham, maid of honor, and Miss Chanda Miller, bridesmaid, wore dresses of embroidered blue organdy, styled with fitted bodices and full skirts. They carried bouquets of blue daisies.

Manuel Kesner was best man, and Johnny Raymond was groomsmen. Bob and Tom Paris, brothers of the bridegroom, were ushers.

Father Escorts Bride

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown, fashioned with a fitted bodice of lace and a bouffant skirt of white lace over satin with lace panel inserts.

She carried an arrangement of orange blossoms centered by a white orchid.

A reception in the Baptist Student Center followed the ceremony. Mrs. Jack Wood of Lubbock was at the guest book. Mrs. Ellwayne Chandler and Mrs. Johnny Raymond served the cake. Presiding at the punch bowl was Mrs. Carl Tipton of Dumas and Mrs. A. A. McNeeley of Tahoka.

The bride chose a white sheath dress for the wedding trip to Denver and Colorado Springs.

The couple are at home at 2602 Sixth Avenue. The bride is a graduate of West Texas State College and is presently employed by the Amarillo Public Schools. The bridegroom, also a WT graduate, works for The Canyon News.

Fairview Breezes

By MRS. J. W. WESLEY

We had a wonderful singing the Sunday two weeks past. We were glad to welcome new friends and some old friends who came for the day. The Rev. Edward Cook of California, who taught singing school some 25 years ago at Fairview, was a welcome visitor.

Those helping Mrs. Ervin Wilson celebrate her birthday with a supper July 13 were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wesley and Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Schaeffer and her brother, Ernest White, are leaving Tuesday for a visit in Philadelphia with the Schaeffers' daughter and son-in-law and their children, the Howard Slack family. They will be met in Philadelphia by Mrs. White, who left previously to attend a church meeting in North Carolina.

Virgia Liston went to Salt Lake City recently for a vacation with her children. They plan on going to Yellowstone Park on a vacation.

Pat Patterson is staying with Aunt Serena Bryan during the days while Virgia is gone.

Frank Rogers and June Foster and children went to Cordell, Okla., to visit with the Don Stonebergs, who have a baby daughter. The Stonebergs had four sons.

Brother and Mrs. Charles Pierce were with us Sunday and lunched at the J. W. Wesleys.

Pension Checks Go In Mail Soon

Several hundred widows and children of deceased veterans of World War II and the Korean Conflict will receive their first pension checks from the Veterans Administration on August 1.

These persons have not been entitled to assistance from the Veterans Administration in the past, but became eligible for benefits beginning July 1 because of the passage of a new law, known as the Veterans Pension Act of 1959. This information was released this week by Roland Black, veterans county service officer in Randall County.

In addition to those who will receive their first checks on August 1, Black said that many other widows and children in Texas are eligible for benefits. Neither the Veterans Administration nor the local service officer know who all these persons are, or where to find them.

Prior to passage of the new pension act, survivors of deceased World War II or Korean Conflict veterans were entitled to pension only if the veteran had disabilities resulting from service.

According to Black, the new act removes this requirement, and makes the widows and dependent children of these veterans entitled to pension benefits if their income is within certain prescribed limits, and if they do not possess large estates.

Benefits under this new act cannot be paid until such time as an application for the benefits is made to the Veterans Administration. Any person who believes he might be eligible under this more liberal law should contact Black at his office at 1509 Fourth Avenue in Canyon, or at the nearest office of the Veterans Affairs Commission for additional information and assistance.

Stork Specials

Mr. and Mrs. J. Richard Henson are parents of a son, born Friday in Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo.

Mr. Henson is a junior at West Texas State College, and Mrs. Henson is in charge of the Health Service at WT.

Miscellaneous Shower Saturday Compliments Miss Johnnye Weeks

A miscellaneous shower honoring Miss Johnnye Weeks, bride-elect of Elmer Clement, was held in the home of Mrs. Jeannette Robbins, 1508 Eighth Avenue, Saturday.

The table was covered with a white linen cloth with Italian hemstitching. The centerpiece was two blue hearts tufted with net and a spray of white pompom mums and satin leaves, held with satin streamers bearing the names of bride and bridegroom and wedding date. White candles in crystal holders flanked the setting.

The bedrooms were also beautifully decorated. In the guest room was an antique lamp adorned with a crescent arrangement of pink roses and fern, held with a pink satin bow. The upstairs bedrooms had blue and yellow umbrellas and matching flower arrangements.

Recorded Music

Alternating at the punch bowl were Mrs. Bob Brotherton and Mrs. Wakefield Walker. Registering guests were Mrs. Bill Mayfield and Mrs. Jack Metcalf.

Appropriate background music was played on hi-fi and stereo.

Marshall Home Site of Coffee

A coffee honoring Miss Esther Walker and Mrs. B. E. Walker of Albuquerque was held Saturday morning in the country home of Mrs. Douglas Marshall.

Miss Walker and Arvie Marshall have planned an August wedding in Albuquerque.

About 60 persons called during the informal coffee. Presiding at the coffee service were Mrs. Gladys Marshall, grandmother of the bridegroom-elect, and Miss Lena Ward.

Co-hostesses were Mrs. R. R. Rhoades, Mrs. Grady Freeman, Mrs. Gladys Marshall, and Mrs. Douglas Marshall.
